New product: Martelé champagne cooler and ice bucket

Martelé champagne cooler and ice bucket for a long-lasting cooling effect and sparkling moments

The extensive bar collection from Robbe & Berking is being expanded with two more bar icons. From now on, the popular champagne cooler and ice bucket from Robbe & Berking are also available with the Martelé hammered pattern.

Every single facet of the characteristic hammer-blow pattern has been driven by hand into the champagne cooler and the ice bucket. This makes each piece truly unique and a masterpiece of silversmithing.

The Martelé champagne cooler and ice bucket lend a certain solemnity to any occasion and are real eye-catchers at the same time. Whether at festive occasions, exclusive events or simply as an eye-catcher in your home - the two silverplated pieces attract attention.

The high conductivity of the silver also ensures that the silver quickly takes on the temperature of the ice and thus offers a particularly long-lasting and effective cooling effect.

In combination with the ice and, in the case of the champagne cooler, the colours of the champagne bottle, a graceful shine - that only silver can offer - is created.

For the perfect bar experience, combine the Martelé ice bucket with the matching lid, champagne goblets and ice tong from Robbe & Berking.
